The death of man is the creation of man in reverse. When man was created he was made out of the dust. After he was formed God put into man the breath of life. Man was not conscious, he could not think, he could not move until God made him live by breathing into his nostrils the breath of life. So when death comes man's "breath goeth forth," he ceases to think, he cannot move, he is totally unconscious, his body will return to the dust from whence it came. And just as the Bible says, in death man will "sleep the sleep of death." Psalm 13:3. And because it is a "perpetual sleep" (Jeremiah 51:39) until the resurrection (John 5:28, 29) there is no communication between the dead and the living.

5. WHERE IS HELL?

There are a number of beliefs about hell. Some people believe God is too merciful to punish anyone. Others believe that the wicked will be sent to hell where they will continue to burn throughout eternity. And there are those who believe the wicked will be completely annihilated and blotted out of existence in hell.

1. Will sinners be punished?

"Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished." Proverbs 11:21, first part.

"And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible." Isaiah 13:11.

"The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished." 2 Peter 2:9.

2. Did Christ teach the casting of the wicked into hell fire?

"And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell." Matthew 5:29.

3. Where will the wicked be punished?

"Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner." Proverbs 11:31.

Peter's testimony on this point is very definite: "But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men." 2 Peter 3:7.

4. What effect will the final punishment have upon the wicked?

"Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death." James 1:15, last part. Read Romans 6:23, first part.

This death is the second death. It is the death described by John, when he says, "Fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them." Revelation 20:9, last part. This will take place after the second resurrection at the end of the thousand years.

5. How complete will be the death of the wicked?

a. Wicked shall be destroyed.

Psalm 145:20

Psalm 101:8

Proverbs 10:29

Philippians 3:19

Psalm 37:38

Psalm 92:7

Proverbs 13:13

b. They shall perish.

Psalm 37:20

Proverbs 19:9

Luke 13:3

c. Wicked will be burned up.

Matthew 3:12

Matthew 13:30

d. They will be consumed.

Isaiah 1:28

e. Wicked will be devoured.

Psalm 21:9

Revelation 20:9

f. They shall be cut off from the earth.

Psalm 37:2, 9, 22, 28, 34, 38

Isaiah 33:12

g. The wicked will go into perdition or utter ruin.

Hebrews 10:39

1 Timothy 6:9

2 Thess. 1:9

2 Thess. 2:10

2 Peter 2:12

Hebrews 6:8

Malachi 4:1, 3

Psalm 37:20

Hebrews 10:27

Proverbs 2:22

2 Peter 3:7

6. Where will the wicked come to their end?

"For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. . . . And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts." Malachi 4:1, 3.

"And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them." Revelation 20:7-9.

This is in harmony with what Peter says in 2 Peter 3:9-12 where he speaks about the earth being burned up. He then mentions a new heaven and a new earth in Verse 13. Here is a plain statement that the punishment of the wicked will be administered upon the earth. "And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth." Isaiah 24:21.

7. Are the wicked being punished in hell fire now?

No. There is coming a day when this will take place. "The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished." 2 Peter 2:9. It is reasonable that men should be judged before punishment.

8. What determines when people will be judged?

"Because he hath appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead." Acts 17:31.

The world was not judged before Christ rose from the dead and it has not been judged yet. The final day of executive judgment is yet future; it will take place at the close of the millennium, 1,000 years after the second advent of Christ. Read Revelation 20:11-15; 2 Peter 3:7.

9. What part of man will be cast into hell fire?

"And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched." Mark 9:43-48.

 The whole body, that is, the entire person, will be cast into hell. Read Matthew 5:30.

10. How long will the wicked burn?

The lake of fire into which the wicked are cast is the same fire that burns and purifies the earth. This settles the question about the fire burning for eternity, for God will create the earth anew for the redeemed. Read 2 Peter 3:13; Matthew 5:5.

11. Since hell fire cannot be quenched does this mean the fire will always burn?

No. Anciently God said He would kindle a fire in Jerusalem "and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched." Jeremiah 17:27, last part. Read 2 Chronicles 36:19-21 which is an account of the fulfillment of Jeremiah 17:27. Jerusalem is not burning now. "Unquenchable" is a fire that cannot be put out. Unquenchable fire always goes out when what is burning has been destroyed.

12. What is the meaning of everlasting fire?

"Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." Matthew 25:41.

 This does not say the wicked are everlasting nor that the fire will burn throughout eternity. Jude says, "Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." Verse 7.

The fire that destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah is not burning today. The Dead Sea is where those cities once stood. Peter tells how the fire reduced those cities to ashes and overthrew them. Read 2 Peter 2:6.

13. What is the meaning of forever in these texts?

Read Revelation 14:10, 11; 20:10.

 John is talking about the torment of the worshipers of the beast in a lake of fire and brimstone. The expression "for ever and ever" in the Greek means unto ages of ages. This expression is used elsewhere in connection with God or Christ and in these cases expresses endless existence. But the meaning is derived from God and Christ with which it is associated. The expression itself does not necessarily mean an endless existence. The punishment of the wicked will be for a certain period but not an unending period which is evident from other scriptures that show the fate of the wicked to be annihilation. Read Matthew 10:28; Revelation 20:14.

Conclusion

One thing is sure, if you choose Christ as Saviour you won't ever have to worry about being cast into hell. "Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow, though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land; but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it." Isaiah 1:16-20.

God must destroy the impenitent because of His holy character. Read Exodus 34:6, 7. God will execute justice for the good of the universe and for the good of those upon whom His judgments fall. God hates sin and He does all that can be done to show sinners His love. But He forces no one into obedience to His will. The choice of the wicked determines their destiny.

6. END OF THE WICKED

We are alive today. Is mankind destined to live forever? Has God promised eternal life to the wicked as well as to the righteous? Did God make a mistake when He said, "The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:23. In the Bible man's life is pictured as being like a shadow or vapor that soon passes. Man is mortal (Job 4:17); he is corruptible (1 Corinthians 15:53, 54). Since he must seek for immortality if he desires eternal life, it is clear that man does not have a natural immortality within him (Romans 2:7).

1. Through whom and by what means are eternal life and immortality made possible?

"But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel." 2 Timothy 1:10.

2. What is the source of eternal life?

Immortality belongs alone to God (1 Timothy 1:17, 6:16). "We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him." 1 John 3:14, 15. Read also 1 John 5:11-13.

3. Will those who reject the gospel have eternal life?

Peter asks this question, "What shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?" 1 Peter 4:17, last part. David gives a clear answer when he says, "The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy." Psalm 145:20. Read Proverbs 13:9.

4. Is it possible that when the Lord uses the word destroy to represent future punishment, He means that the sinner shall live eternally in torment?

Take a look at how God uses the words destroy, destroyed and destruction. He said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth: both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air." Genesis 6:7, first part. He said further: "Behold, I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven, and everything that is in the earth shall die." Genesis 6:17. But then He told Noah, "And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female." Genesis 6:19. It is clear that the threatened destruction would put an end to their lives. Only those in the ark would continue to be living beings.

5. What was the result of the Flood?

"And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man: all in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died. And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark." Genesis 7:21-23.

13 When the Lord uses the word destroy to express the punishment of the wicked He means just what the word literally means. The Hebrew word for destroy is machah In Genesis 6:7 and means to wipe off, to wipe away, to blot out or to destroy.

6. To what does the path of the wicked lead?

"Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat." Matthew 7:13.

13 Look up that word destruction and you will quickly discover that it involves a bringing to naught; demolition; ruin; slaying or devastation. Destroy and destruction never mean to keep alive in torment. That which is alive is not destroyed so long as it remains alive.

7. Where will the wicked be destroyed?

Jesus said, "Fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Matthew 10:28, last part.

13 The Greek word for hell here is Gehenna or Gehenna fire which was a place of destruction near the southwest wall of Jerusalem. It was the city dump. Fires were kept burning for the purpose of consuming filth. Men cannot live in fire. It will burn them up.

8. What does Paul say the end will be of the enemies of the cross of Christ?

"Whose end is destruction." Philippians 3:19, first part.

9. How will those be punished who do not obey the gospel?

"In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power." 2 Thessalonians 1:8, 9.

13 Anyone knows that the destruction of a living being produces death. "Everlasting destruction" is the same as saying it is eternal in its consequences. It is a completed act. Read Jude 7.

10. Will the wicked exist throughout eternity?

"Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more." Psalm 104:35, first part.

11. Will any part of the wicked be left?

"For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch." Malachi 4:1.

12. What about the devil, will he too be destroyed?

"Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil." Hebrews 2:14.

Conclusion

The overthrow of the wicked will be complete. Their destruction will be eternal. Nowhere in God's universe will sin or sinners be found. Says God, "The wicked shall perish." Psalm 57:20, first part. "For evildoers shall be cut off . . . For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be." Psalm 37:9, first part. 10. God will not permit His creation to be marred forever with the effects of sin. Here is God's protest against those who try to "imagine" that the wicked will always exist: "What do ye imagine against the LORD? He will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time." Nahum 1:9. Just as God destroyed the impenitent of Nineveh so will He ultimately destroy all who have become hardened in their rebellion.

7. ETERNAL TORMENT

Does the Bible support the theory of eternal torment for the wicked? Some believe that the word hell in the Bible means a subterranean lake of fire into which the souls of the wicked are cast at death where they will burn in the flames throughout eternity. It is important to make a careful examination of every text that mentions hell. This will reveal what the Scriptures teach.

1. What is the meaning of hell in the Bible?

There are three meanings of hell.

a. It means the grave. Thirty one times hell is mentioned in the Old Testament and in each instance it comes from the Hebrew word sheol meaning the grave. In the New Testament of the twenty-four times hell is mentioned eleven times it comes from the Greek word hades which means the grave. Hades is the Greek equivalent of sheol. Compare Psalm 16:10; Acts 2:27, both meaning grave.

b. It means darkness. Once in the New Testament hell comes from the Greek word Tartarus and has reference to the darkness of the material universe. Read 2 Peter 2:4; Jude 6.

c. It means the Valley of Hinnom. Twelve times in the New Testament hell comes from the Greek word Gehenna, a transliteration of the Hebrew word meaning the Valley of Hinnom just outside Jerusalem. Christ used this valley to illustrate how the wicked will be destroyed in the lake of fire at the end of the thousand years of Revelation 20. Read Mark 9:43-48 and Revelation 20:7-9, 14, 15; 21:8.

2. What is meant by the worm not dying?

"Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched." Mark 9:44.

13 When Jesus talked about Gehenna the people understood He was talking about the Valley of Hinnom which was the city incinerator. In their early history it had become a symbol of judgment, for in that valley divine judgment fell upon their idols and their idolatrous ancestors (Jeremiah 7:32, 33). That which the fire did not devour the worms did. The worm does not refer to a soul. The Greek word skoles, in this instance, means maggots. Inasmuch as the fire was not quenched indicates it was inextinguishable because there was a constant supply of refuse being placed there every day. However, no fire is burning there today! The undying worm and unquenchable fire serve to show that the final destruction will be complete.

3. How long is forever?

Forever in the Bible is repeatedly applied to a limited time rather than an indefinite period of time.

a. Philemon 15 tells us Onesimus was received by Philemon forever, but when he died he could no longer be a servant.

b. Deuteronomy 15:17 speaks of a servant serving his master forever; but this forever closed with the death of the servant.

c. 1 Chronicles 28:4 says David was to be king forever and yet he ruled only 40 years.

d. Jonah 2:6 tells of Jonah's experience in the belly of the fish and Jonah says he was there forever; but Jesus said he was in that fish three days and nights (Matthew 12:39, 40).

13 The length of forever is determined by the way it is applied, and the nature of the subject to which it is applied. If we apply it to the area of life and say, God lives forever, or that the saints will live forever, we mean their lives will be endless because God is immortal by nature and the saints will be given immortality. If we say the wicked and Satan will burn forever, we mean as long as they live, which will not be endless because by nature they are mortal and are not given eternal life (1 John 5:12). It does not necessarily mean a condition that never ends. It means a continuance without a break and the length of continuance depends upon the object to which it is applied. The word tall is like that too. For instance, a tall man may be 61-2 feet; whereas a tall mountain might be 6,000 feet.

4. Will Satan exist throughout eternity? If not, what will be his final end?

"Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." Matthew 25:41.

Under the figure of the Prince of Tyros, the following is prophesied of Satan: "Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee. All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more." Ezekiel 28:18, 19.

5. Will hell fire go out?

Just as God destroyed the impenitent of Babylon, so will He ultimately destroy and expunge from the universe all traces of sin.

"Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it." Isaiah 47:14.

It is said that "the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever." Revelation 20:10. This torment can be only until he is brought to ashes. When the smoke of their torment has gone up, it is gone forever. Read Revelation 14:11.

6. Will there be everlasting punishing?

No. This would indicate a continuing act. Jesus did say that the punishment of the wicked would be a completed act. It will be everlasting in its nature.

"And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal." Matthew 25:46.

In fact, the act of punishment will be so final and complete that the wicked will no longer exist. Read Psalm 37:9, 10.

Conclusion

Why will there be a lake of fire? It is God's intention to make a clean universe. To do this, the devil and all sin and sinners must be destroyed. God says, "Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?" Ezekiel 33:11. A person need not end up in hell fire. Jesus is our only way of escape. Read John 3:16.

8. DID CHRIST DESCEND INTO HELL?

There are those who believe the sinner, after he passes from this life, will have another chance to be saved. They say sinners go to a spirit world at death, and there the gospel is preached to them again.

1. Did Christ go into hell?

"He [David] seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption." Acts 2:31.

The word translated hell in this verse is the same word translated grave in 1 Corinthians 15:55, "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" The marginal reference gives the word hell instead of grave. Christ was not left in the grave. He is risen. The apostles never taught Jesus went into a place of torment at death.

2. What did the apostles teach of Christ and His whereabouts after death?

"Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. . . . This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses." Acts 2:22-24, 32.

Christ arose and triumphed over death. His promise to those who love and serve Him is "Because I live, ye shall live also." John 14:19, last part.

3. What about baptism for the dead? Should this practice be followed? Is it supported by the Bible?

"Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?" 1 Corinthians 15:29.

In this verse Paul refers to a wrong practice in which Christians were baptized on behalf of dead relatives or friends who had not been baptized. It was assumed that their relatives or friends would then be saved without any decision on their part. Paul is not showing any possibility of salvation after a person dies. A person must personally accept Christ, repent and confess his sins, in order to profit by baptism and be saved. Death marks the close of human probation. Read Psalm 49:7-9. Even the most righteous of men can "deliver but their own souls." Ezekiel 14:14, 16.

4. What is Paul writing about in 1 Corinthians 15?

"For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." 1 Corinthians 15:3, 4.

Paul was showing that Jesus had risen—He was not dead. He next points out that Christ's resurrection is a surety that those who believe on Him will be raised. He closes his argument by saying, "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father: when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power." 1 Corinthians 15:22-24. Paul's theme is the certainty of the resurrection, not the state of man in death, nor the possibility of a second chance for salvation after death.

5. How was the gospel preached to the dead?

"For this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit." 1 Peter 4:6.

A hurried reading of this verse may give the impression that the dead have the gospel preached to them. What is this text saying? "For this cause was the gospel preached in the past also to them that are in the present dead." Those people to whom the gospel was preached were alive but they are dead now. It is impossible to preach to the dead in the light of what the Bible says about them: "The dead know not anything." Ecclesiastes 9:5, second part.

6. How did Christ preach to spirits in prison?

"By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison; which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water." 1 Peter 3:19, 20.

 Peter is stating that Christ preached to the antediluvians in Noah's day. They were in the prison house of sin. By the Holy Spirit through Noah's ministry, the provision made at Calvary was made available to the antediluvians. In fact, no other provision has ever been made for men to escape from the devil's prison house (Acts 3:12). The Bible does not teach the concept of disembodied spirits. The term spirit is at times used simply to mean a person. Read 1 John 4:1; 2 Timothy 4:22.

Conclusion

The Bible doesn't say Christ preached in person to the spirits in prison. He preached by the Holy Spirit through the ministry of Noah (Genesis 6:3; 2 Peter 2:5). And the "spirits in prison" refer to living men and women. Not one text in all the Bible ever speaks of hell-the lake of fire-as a prison. Christ's ministry was well outlined by Isaiah when he said, "I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people; for a light of the Gentiles; to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house." Isaiah 42:6, 7. It is the gospel that looses people from the prison house of sin.

The door of salvation is open now. Tomorrow may be too late. In death there will be no further opportunity. "For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee; they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth." Isaiah 38:18.

9. DID THE REPENTANT THIEF GO TO HEAVEN?

One of the most popular passages of Scripture which is quite often used to prove man is immortal and that he goes to his reward at death is the scriptural account of the repentant thief on the cross. "And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." Luke 23:42, 43.

1. Did Jesus promise the repentant thief he would go to heaven on the day of his crucifixion?

As written originally the Greek was without any punctuation. The adverb today is between two clauses which in the Greek read "truly to you I say" and "with me you will be in the paradise." According to Greek usage the adverb could modify either clause. So the question is, what did Jesus mean to say? Did Christ promise the thief he would be with Him that day in paradise, or did He simply tell him that that day He was giving him the assurance of salvation? The only way to know what Jesus meant is to understand the Bible answers to the remaining questions in this particular study.

 It is well known that there is no punctuation in the earliest preserved Greek manuscripts of the New Testament. Punctuation is said to have been introduced by Manutius, a printer, who lived in Venice in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. Therefore the Bible punctuation is human and variable. It is entirely possible to change the meaning of a passage of Scripture by the position of a comma.

2. Where is paradise?

In the New Testament the term paradise occurs only in Luke 23:43; 2 Corinthians 12:4; Revelation 2:7. Paul, in 2 Corinthians 12:2-4, makes paradise synonymous with heaven. The tree of life mentioned in Revelation 2:7 is said to be "in the midst of the paradise of God." And in Revelation 21:1-3, 10; 22:1-5 the tree of life is associated with the new earth, the New Jerusalem, the river of life, and the throne of God. It is evident that in the New Testament the usage of paradise is consistently synonymous with heaven.

3. Where did Christ go on the crucifixion day?

"This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid." Luke 23:52, 53.

4. Did Christ go to His Father in heaven the day He died?

No, for three days later after His resurrection Jesus said to Mary, "Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God." John 20:17.

5. What did Jesus teach about the time when men would enter into their reward in paradise?

Less than twenty-four hours before making this promise to the thief Jesus had given to His disciples the promise recorded in John 14:1-3. He had talked about the mansions in His Father's house and the time when He would come for them to receive His own unto Himself. Read Matthew 16:27; 25:31, 34.

Conclusion

To say that the thief went to heaven on the crucifixion day and to use this to support the immortality of man depends upon the wrong use of a comma. This is not a right way to interpret the Bible to make this text the foundation of a doctrine which contradicts all other plain scriptures on that subject. Then too it is clear according to John 19:31-33 that the thief did not die the day of his crucifixion.

There is only one way to have eternal life after the resurrection and live forever. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." John 3:36. The resurrection of Christ makes certain that a person who is in Christ will be given eternal life. Read 1 Corinthians 15:16-22.

10. THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS

Another passage of scripture very widely used to support the doctrine of inherent immortality is the account of the rich man and Lazarus. Read Luke 16:19-31.

Two views are taken of this scripture: Some say it is a literal history of two men, others say it is a fictitious story used as a parable. This account is used to prove two doctrines: That man is conscious between death and the resurrection, and that men go to their reward or punishment as soon as they die.

1. Who was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom?

"And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom." Luke 16:22.

 If this is an account of actuality then we are compelled to believe that the beggar who died was carried bodily with all his rags and sores to the bosom of Abraham.

2. What happened to the rich man?

"The rich man also died, and was buried; and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame." Luke 16:22-24.

3. Did the rich man come to life after he was dead and buried in hell?

There are some who venture to answer that it was not the real material Lazarus but rather his soul. In this account there is no mention of the soul of the rich man or of Lazarus. We have no right to make such an addition to God's Word. Both persons are depicted as being bodily present in the place of their rewards ("his finger" "my tongue").

4. What is the obvious meaning of this parable?

It has no reference to future punishment. It has no reference to the condition of man between death and the resurrection. What Christ was talking about is introduced in Luke 15:2. "And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them."

 Jesus did not deny this charge. To justify His actions Jesus introduced several parables.

- Luke 15:3-7 is the parable of the lost sheep. Just as the Pharisees put forth effort to bring a lost sheep to the fold and when found they rejoiced, Jesus said, "Likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance." Verse 7.
- Luke 15:8-10 records the parable of the lost piece of money. The Pharisees would agree that the woman should search for the lost coin and when found it was cause for rejoicing. Again Jesus repeated the statement about joy in heaven over one sinner who repents.
- Luke 15:11-32 gives the parable of the prodigal son. Here Christ made clear His point against the Pharisees. They put forth effort to reclaim sheep and money and were joyful when these were found. But when lost men came to Christ to be saved they acted like the elder brother and were offended.
- Luke 16:1-13 records the parable of the unjust steward. But the Pharisees refused to be impressed by Christ's work. They opposed Him and had no sympathy with His work of saving men. Verse 14 says, "And they derided him."

 In Luke 16:15-18 Christ mentioned the enduring nature of His law. But even though the Pharisees were sticklers for the law they were rejecting Christ the remedy for their sins. The law cannot save. Christ can. But the Pharisees refused to comply with any such arrangement.

- So in the parable of the rich man and Lazarus the consequences resulting to the Jews for rejecting Christ are vividly illustrated.

5. Is the term "hell" used in this parable the hell fire, the place of punishment for the wicked?

No. The Greek word is hades. It means the grave.

6. Why then did Christ have the rich man alive in hell (hades or the grave)?

In answering this question there are three reasons to consider:

- Christ met people on their own ground.
- The doctrine of a conscious state of existence between death and the resurrection was held by many at that time. Jesus drew the idea for the story from a common Jewish belief—contrary to the Scriptures to be sure, but nonetheless a current Jewish belief. (This is attested by the Jewish historian Flavius Josephus in his "Discourse to the Greeks Concerning Hades.")

- He framed His parable so as to teach important truths through their preconceived opinions.

7. What are some of the lessons taught in this parable?

- It is in this life that men determine their destiny.
- There is no probationary period after death.
- By his own choice man fixes a gulf between him and God.
- The parable draws a contrast between the wealthy who do not make God their trust and the poor who have trusted God.

8. To whom did the rich man plead for help?

"And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame." Luke 16:24.

 He went on to request additional help for his brethren. "Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: for I have five brethren, that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment." Luke 16:27, 28 This request cast reflection on God as though God had not thoroughly warned him.

9. Which is more important, miracles or the written Word of God?

"Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead." Luke 16:29-31.

 God's written Word is always more important than any miracle. This proved true in Christ's last miracle which He performed when He raised Lazarus of Bethany who had been dead for four days. They still rejected Christ and they even sought to put Lazarus to death (John 12:9-11).

10. What was the gulf between the rich man and Abraham?

It was a gulf of disobedience. Abraham had believed and served God in faith and obedience. Even though the Jews were his descendants yet they were rejecting the Messiah whom Abraham accepted by faith. "Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad." John 8:56.

Conclusion

Jesus came to break down the wall between Jews and Gentiles. He came to give all an equal opportunity for salvation. This parable has no reference to a future punishment or the condition of man between death and the resurrection. There is no support here for the doctrine of the immortality of the soul.

The only way to obtain life in another world after death is by the resurrection. Paul says, "If the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised . . . then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished." 1 Corinthians 15:16, 18. Let us prepare now to be ready at His appearing.

HEAVEN

1. WHERE IS HEAVEN?

Heaven is not a matter of speculation. Heaven is a real place. Every time the Lord's Prayer is repeated we acknowledge God is in heaven, for we say, "Our Father which art in heaven. Hallowed be thy name." Matthew 6:9.

1. Where is God's throne?

"The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all." Psalm 103:19.

2. In what part of the heavens does God reside?

"Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!" Job 22:12.

3. Is it possible for God to hear our prayers as they ascend to heaven?

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." 2 Chronicles 7:14.

4. Will the righteous ever go to heaven?

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:1-3.

5. When will the righteous go to heaven?

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17.

6. Are the righteous who have died in heaven now?

No. Paul makes it clear in 1 Thessalonians 4:13-15 that they are asleep. Some have questioned what is meant when Paul says in Verse 14, "them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." The Greek reads, "For since we believe that Jesus died and rose; so also [we believe] that God, through Jesus, will lead forth with him those who fell asleep."

Paul means that just as Christ was raised from the dead, so God will call the sleeping saints from their graves and will take them with Him to heaven. In 2 Corinthians 4:14 he restates this idea: "Knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence." - Revised Standard Version. The parallel is that just as Christ died and rose, we die and rise. God will bring us from the grave just as He called Jesus from the grave, except that it is through the agency of Jesus that we are called from the grave. Read 2 Corinthians 4:15-18. Read also 1 Corinthians 15:20-23 where it is evident that the righteous dead will be made alive at the coming of the Lord.

7. Who only will go to heaven?

"Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in." Isaiah 26:2. Read Revelation 22:14.

What is truth? Jesus said, "Thy word is truth." John 17:17, last part. Evidently it is important to do as the Bible instructs. Read Revelation 1:3.

8. Before going to heaven what change will take place?

"Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality." 1 Corinthians 15:51-53.

When the redeemed are given immortality at the coming of the Lord they will nevermore die. All weariness will then be a thing of the past. Read Isaiah 40:31.

Conclusion

All the Bible says about heaven is truly wonderful. The important question is, Are you getting ready to go to heaven? In order to be ready to go there you must have your name recorded in the book of life. "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life." Revelation 21:27. The alternative is described in these words, "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." Revelation 20:15. Right now your name can be inscribed in the book of life. How? "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9.

2. THREE HEAVENS

Some think there are different phases of God's reward for the righteous. If you were to ask the people in Borneo about heaven they would point to Kinabalu and say, "Helo, Kinabalu." Helo means way off over there in the great beyond Kinabalu where they believe the spirits go.

The Buddhists in Thailand picture heaven as being a series of steps. You must get to the place where you have no desires.

The Hindus have the idea of the transmigration of the soul. At death, according to their belief, a good person goes to a higher form of life whereas a bad person would go into a lower form. A strict Hindu will destroy nothing that lives.

1. Does the Bible speak of more than one heaven?

"I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) how that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter." 2 Corinthians 12:2-4.

Paul is telling of the visions or revelations which God gave to him. The vision of the third heaven was so real and vivid he didn't know whether he was transferred there bodily or just in thought. Just because he had been shown a glimpse of the glories of heaven was not the most important thing. Paul did not complain about the hard circumstances in his life. He just kept on realizing that there were many things he would have to endure for Jesus Christ.

2. Where is the first heaven?

"And God called the firmament Heaven. And the even and the morning were the second day . . . And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven." Genesis 1:8, 20.

Read also Jeremiah 4:25. "Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding. . .

"When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it." Job 38:4, 9. The heavens are a very concrete thing. The air above our earth is the first heaven. It is in this heaven the birds fly. The Bible calls it the firmament. 2 Peter 3:10-13 speaks of a time when this heaven will be destroyed and made new.

3. What is the second heaven?

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork." Psalm 19:1.

"When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?" Psalm 8:3, 4.

The second heaven is where the sun, moon, and stars are.

4. Where is the third heaven?

The third heaven is above the other two heavens. Of Christ, Paul says, "He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things." Ephesians 4:10. Paul calls the third heaven "paradise" in 2 Corinthians 12:4. Paul did not describe the third heaven because human words are inadequate. Read 1 Corinthians 2:9. When the dying thief accepted Christ he was assured of a place in paradise with Christ (Luke 23:43). So paradise or the third heaven is where Jesus is now and it is there to which Christ will take the righteous when He returns. According to Revelation 2:7 and Revelation 22:1, 2 paradise is where the tree of life and God's throne are located. Paradise is where God is.

5. Is Saint Peter in charge of letting people into heaven?

There is no scriptural basis for this assumption. Revelation 21:12 tells of there being twelve gates to God's city. This text shows that angels are stationed at the gates.

Conclusion

The Bible indicates that someday in the future you can go to heaven. Who will go to heaven? Those who have believed in Jesus Christ. "And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him." Hebrews 5:9. While Paul was awaiting execution in Rome he said, "For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." 2 Timothy 4:6-8. Be willing to follow Christ. Be willing to make any sacrifice. Someday heaven will be your reward.

3. SILENCE IN HEAVEN

There is coming a time when there will be silence in heaven for a half hour. "And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour." Revelation 8:1. In order to understand when this silence takes place in heaven we must take a look at John's prophecy of the seven seals.

1. What did John see in the hand of Him who sat on the throne of God?

"And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals." Revelation 5:1.

2. Why did John weep when it appeared no one would open the Book?

John had been told in Revelation 4:1 that this vision would have to do with "things which must be hereafter." So John was afraid the future would not be revealed.

3. Who was able to open the sealed book?

"And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne." Revelation 5:5-7.

Christ was able to break the seals and open the book because he was worthy. His worthiness depended on His having prevailed. The word prevailed comes from the same word as overcome in Revelation 3:21. Christ's victory on Calvary made Him able and worthy. As the seals are opened we see the development of the good and evil in human history. Revelation the sixth chapter covers nearly 2,000 years of human history. This vision has to do especially with events that would transpire relative to God's church from the time of Christ to His return.

4. What was the condition of the church during the time represented by the first seal?

"And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse; and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer." Revelation 6:1, 2.

Read Zechariah 10:3. The prophet compares God's people to a horse. Thus it is not strange that these horses should represent conditions in the church. This was the period of the apostles (A. D. 31 - A. D. 100). The church remained pure and is represented by the white horse. It grew rapidly. The gospel went everywhere.

5. What happened during the second seal?

"And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red; and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword." Revelation 6:3, 4.

This was a period of conflict (A. D. 100 - A. D. 313). Truth began to be adulterated, depicted by the changing color of the horse. Because much truth was not followed the sword and bloodshed followed. Paul had talked about an apostasy in Acts 20:28-30 and this is the time when his predictions were fulfilled.

6. What kind of condition prevailed during the period of the third seal?

"And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine." Revelation 6:5, 6.

This was truly a period of error, sorrow, defeat, and moral darkness (A. D. 313 - A. D. 538). These prices are famine prices. They represent the real famine for the Word of God and the real truth of God in this period when the world walked into the church. Traditions began to be placed above the Bible. The state began to interfere in matters of religion and the church.

7. During the fourth seal what was the condition of the church?

"And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth." Revelation 6:7, 8.

This is the church of the Dark Ages (A. D. 338 - A. D. 1517). During this time a church-state religion exalted a man to be equal with God. Millions were put to death when they opposed the teachings of the church of this period.

8. What did John see during the fifth seal?

"And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: and they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled." Revelation 6:9-11.

Who were the souls under the altar? These were the martyrs who were put to death during the previous period. Were these souls conscious? Not at all. The prophet here uses a figure of speech known as personification. The first time they are really mentioned as being alive after their martyrdom is after the first resurrection. Read Revelation 20:4-6. Why were these souls under the altar? Death had come for two reasons: They had been killed because of their stand for the Bible and because of their testimony for Christ. During this period (A. D. 1517 - A. D. 1755), as the Reformation began, a change began to take place.

9. To what great event does the sixth seal extend?

"And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places; and the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?" Revelation 6:12-17.

This seal differs from the first four by showing events which mark prophetic time rather than the condition of the church. 1755 was the time of the great Lisbon earthquake. This was followed by the darkening of the sun and moon on May 19, 1780 and the falling of the stars on November 13, 1833.

10. What portion of the sixth seal remains unfulfilled?

"And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; and said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?" Revelation 6:14-17.

Here the prophet describes the opening of the atmospheric heavens for the coming of Christ. At the return of Christ the wicked will seek to hide themselves from the presence of God.

11. Why will there be silence in heaven for half an hour?

The breaking of the seventh seal brings the second advent of Christ. Heaven will be emptied of Christ and all of His angels. Read Matthew 25:31 and Luke 9:26.

Conclusion

If we consider the one half hour of silence to be prophetic time this would be about seven days. Heaven would be silent then from the time Christ left until He returns with His people. "Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Matthew 24:44.

4. WHO WILL GO TO HEAVEN?

Some people believe that everyone will go to heaven. But if everyone had to go to heaven and stay there for eternity it would be most miserable for many of them. Why? Because some people's idea of a good time is a wild drinking party, a gambling room, a dance hall, a house of vice, or a night club.

1. When He returns, what kind of people will Christ take with Him to heaven?

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17. Read Revelation 21:27. Here it is clear that nothing that defiles enters - only those written in the book of life.

2. Who of the righteous have already gone to heaven?

- Enoch. He never died. Read Hebrews 11:5 and Genesis 5:24.
- Elijah. He was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire. He could not be found anywhere. Read 2 Kings 2:11-12.
- Moses. Paul indicates in Romans 5:14 that death was broken by Moses. Deuteronomy 34:4-7 says that Moses died and was buried. Later Moses was raised from the grave. Read Jude 9. That he was restored to life is evident from his appearance on the mount of transfiguration. Read Luke 9:30, 31.
- Those resurrected at Christ's resurrection and who ascended with Him. Read Matthew 27:51-53; Ephesians 4:8, margin.

The three Old Testament persons were taken to heaven doubtlessly to give encouragement to God's people that there would truly be a reward for the faithful. Their redemption was dependent on the coming Redeemer's work.

The last group are trophies of Christ's actual victory over sin and the grave. But God's people in general await the great general resurrection at the second coming. Like Enoch and Elijah, the living generation of the redeemed will be translated without dying (1 Thessalonians 4). Those who have died will be resurrected (1 Thessalonians 4).

3. To whom will citizenship in heaven be granted?

"Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land; but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it." Isaiah 1:18-20.

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matthew 7:21.

"Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." Revelation 22:14. Read also Revelation 15:2, 3.

Conclusion

David asks the question, "Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?" He gives the answer in the next verse: "He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart: who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully." Psalm 24:3, 4. Read also Psalm 15. We can prepare for heaven by being like Jesus. Read 1 John 3:2, 3.

5. THE NEW JERUSALEM

When Jesus was about to leave this world He said there were mansions in His Father's house and He assured the disciples that He was going there to prepare a place for all the righteous before returning to take them to be with Him. Read John 14:1-3.

1. What kind of place did Abraham expect to inhabit?

"For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God." Hebrews 11:10.

2. What kind of a place is Christ preparing?

"But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: whereof God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city." Hebrews 11:16.

3. What is the name of the city?

"But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all." Galatians 4:26.

4. When John saw the New Jerusalem what was taking place?

"And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband . . . And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God." Revelation 21:2, 10.

5. What is the size of the New Jerusalem?

"And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal." Revelation 21:16.

 The city is 12,000 furlongs in circumference. Using 8 furlongs to the mile this city would be 1,500 miles around, or 375 miles on each side.

6. How high are the walls?

"And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel." Revelation 21:17.

 Since the walls measured 144 cubits, translated into feet—using 18 inches to the cubit—this would mean the walls are 216 feet in height. How does this agree with the latter part of Verse 16, where it says the sides and the height are "equal"?

This is simply saying that the height is in proportion to the other measurements.

7. What basic materials are used in its construction?

The walls are jasper. The city itself is principally made of gold. The gates are of pearl. Read Revelation 21:18, 21. The foundations of the city are made of all kinds of precious stones. Read Revelation 21:19, 20.

8. What names are on the twelve gates?

"And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel." Revelation 21:12.

9. What names are on the twelve foundations?

"And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb." Revelation 21:14.

Conclusion

John mentions in Revelation 21:23, 25 and Revelation 22:5 there will be no night in the city. This does not mean that the sun and moon will no longer exist. It is promised in Genesis 8:22 that day and night shall not cease. The meaning seems to be that the splendor of the glory of the eternal God outshines the sun so that the sun and moon are not seen by any one in the city, just as the stars are not seen in the day due to the splendor of the sun. Read Isaiah 24:23. However, according to Isaiah 30:26 the days and nights in the New Earth will be even more glorious. The character of those who enter that city is indicated by the character of those who are excluded. Read Revelation 21:27. Let's plan to be there.

6. HOW TO KNOW LOVED ONES IN HEAVEN

When a loved one is lost in death we ask, Will I hear that loving voice again? Will I recognize father, mother, brother, or sisters in the next world? There are several ways by which it will be possible to know loved ones in heaven.

1. Do we know what people in heaven will be like?

"Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." 1 John 3:2.

2. What kind of bodies will the righteous have?

"For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself." Philippians 3:20, 21.

3. Did Christ have a real body after He passed through death?

Read Luke 24:36-43.

 There are three positive proofs Jesus had a real body after He was resurrected. First, the disciples could see Him. Second they could touch Him. Third, He ate food in their presence. Since the righteous are to be like Jesus when He returns it is clear they will have real tangible bodies. Read Romans 8:11, 23. Just as Christ was recognized after having passed through death the righteous can expect the same kind of recognition.

4. How did Mary recognize Jesus on the morning of His resurrection?

Read John 20:11-16. When Jesus spoke her name Mary knew Him by His voice.

5. How did the disciples recognize Christ?

Read John 20:19, 20, 26-29. They knew Him by His appearance—He looked the same. All imperfections will disappear but this will not do away with the personal identity.

6. How else was Christ known?

Read Luke 24:13-35. "He was known of them in breaking of bread." It was His habit to raise His hands as He blessed the food.

Conclusion

The Bible makes it plain that our identity will not be lost in the kingdom of heaven. "For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain." Isaiah 66:22. Read also Matthew 8:11. We will also know many in heaven we have not met on earth. Mark 9:2-5 tells about Peter, James, and John recognizing Moses and Elijah on the mount of transfiguration and yet they had never met them before. We will know people even better than we know them here. Read 1 Corinthians 13:9-12. Jesus said, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." John 6:40.

7. WHERE THE RIGHTEOUS WILL SPEND ETERNITY

In the beginning God created a perfect world. He created man and gave him dominion over every living thing (Genesis 1:28). When man sinned God had a plan to reclaim him (Titus 2:14). It was God's purpose to redeem the earth also which suffered the effects of sin. God says, "As truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD." Numbers 14:21.

1. What will the meek inherit?

"Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth." Matthew 5:5. Read Psalm 37:11.

 Peter says the inheritance will be a new earth (2 Peter 3:13). This world will be renovated by fire and made new (2 Peter 3:10, 11).

2. For what purpose was the earth created?

"For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else." Isaiah 45:18

3. When will the earth become the home of the redeemed?

"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God." Revelation 21:1-3.

 The New Jerusalem will descend from heaven at the end of the thousand years of Revelation 20. When the wicked prepare to attack that city (Revelation 20:7-9) then fire devours them and purifies the earth. Then the new earth, with the New Jerusalem as its capital, will be the home of the saved forever.

4. Who will prepare the homes and the food in the new earth?

"And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands." Isaiah 65:21, 22.

5. Will the animals be different?

"The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD." Isaiah 65:25. Read also Isaiah 11:6-9.

6. Will there be any sickness in the new earth?

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." Revelation 21:4.

7. Will there be anything to disturb?

"And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places." Isaiah 32:18.

Conclusion

To make the new earth even more enjoyable all former things will be wiped from the memory. Read Revelation 21:4. In Isaiah 66:22, 23 it speaks of the inhabitants of the new earth worshipping before God every new moon (every 28 days) and every Sabbath which is the seventh day of each week. Where will God be? When the New Jerusalem comes down from heaven the Scripture says that "the tabernacle of God is with men." Revelation 21:3. Read also Revelation 22:3. Life will be perpetuated by the fruit of the tree of life in the New Jerusalem which bears a new fruit each month. Read Revelation 22:2. We can be there. Read 1 John 3:2, 3.
